The fans yell the Lions on to victory.

The boys take a break after a hard day of practice.

The Lions score a point.

Two against one—is that fair?

Block that pass, boys.

He flies through the air with the greatest of ease.

That'll teach you guys.

I got him.

*Denotes Conference Games

Gary Keeling, David Hammett, Don Karnes, Ken Bowman, Sam Knight, Gary Crawford, Don Kellholfer, Larry Berner, Gary Hambright, Art Cortez, Bruce Hammett, Coach Landrith.

Joplin Junior College is very proud of its 1963 Basketball Team. These boys, under the leadership of Doug Landrith, won first place in the Inter-State Conference by winning 13 straight conference games. Art Cortez, Kenny Bowman, Bruce Hammett, Gary Keeling, and Sam Knight, the five starters, tallied a total of 1,000 points, far out of the reach of any Conference opponent. By averaging 95 points per game, the Lions became the highest scoring team in the history of Joplin Junior College.

1963 Crossroads' Queen*

Crossroads' Skits

You all vote for Margee, now.

Even ole "Abe" picked Suzanne

Miss IBM says, "Vote for Ginger."

What'd I say? Vote for Suzanne!

These beauties could have danced all night for Gretchen.

You naturally flunk this class if you don't vote for Judy.

Miss Juco Pageant

Cheryl Martin became Miss Juco of 1963, winning the first contest held on campus for good grooming. Millie Blankenship was first runner-up and Ginger Johnston was second runner-up. Cheryl will represent J.J.C. in the "Ten Best Dressed College Girls in America" contest sponsored by Glamour magazine.

Taking one last look at Joplin Junior College, a sophomore knows he will have many moments to remember—shouting voices, friendly greetings, ringing class bells, and “gab” sessions in the cafeteria. As we leave the familiar faces and smiles, we realize that a part of us will always remain there.

Acknowledgements

Behind our yearbook is a patient, hard-working photographer. Mr. Bob Baird of Baird Studio has won our everlasting gratitude and affection because of his good humor and excellent work. He is indeed an indispensable asset to our 1963 yearbook. The Crossroads staff takes pride in saying, "Thank you, Bob, for a job well done."
